

Carpenter Labourer

About Us:

United Greeneries is a pioneer in the cannabis industry, becoming one of the first licensed producers under the Access to Cannabis for Medical Purposes Regulations (ACMPR). Grown in beautiful British Columbia and inspired by the spirit of the West Coast, we strive for a natural, purer product that's grown sustainably and responsibly for people and the planet. United Greeneries offers competitive salary packages, an incredible work environment, and career advancement opportunities. As a team of horticulturists, engineers and entrepreneurs, we share a passion for growing this future together.

Job Summary:

We are looking for an experienced Carpenter's Helper to assist the Site Superintendent with the construction of one of our Health Canada regulated cultivation facilities. This role will be located in Lucky Lake, Saskatchewan on a temporary basis till completion of the project. This facility will have an estimated building time of approximately a year, and if candidate wishes to continue employment, the individual must re-apply for any employment opportunities working inside the operational facility once it the project is complete.

Key Responsibilities:

- Support the Super Intendent with any daily construction needs
- Work within the Health Canada regulations for building the cultivation facility
- Able to operate construction tools and machinery
- Complete tasks in a timely manner and able to meet strict deadlines
- Assisting with framing, building cladding, applying vapour barriers, insulating, trenching for services (by hand), back filling, demolition, setting up and securing of ladders, setting up temporary lighting, painting, loading and unloading of equipment (if duly qualified), rubbish removal, site clean-up.
- Maintain a clean and safe work environment

Skills and Qualifications:

- Minimum of 3 years working as Carpenter's helper/ Construction Labourer
- Valid certifications - Industrial First Aid, Scissor Lift Operation, Forklift Operation, Boom Lift Operation will be considered an asset but are not mandatory.
- Supply your own Personal Safety Equipment (CSA approved work boots, hard hat, work gloves, and safety vest)
- Valid Driver's license
- Exceptional organizational skills
- Flexibility to work nontraditional hours including some "on-call" shifts
- Detail-oriented and reliable
- Supplying your own set of basic work tools is an asset but not mandatory

*Background Check is required